Dear Mr. Turmel:

Re: TURMEL, John v HMQ (Court File No.: T-130-21)

I am writing in response to your letter dated May 2, 2021. To expedite the determination of this matter, Canada is willing to consent to 15 days for the service and filing of Canada's Notice of Motion and Affidavits. Canada is also willing to start the timeline for service and filing of its Motion Record from the date that you advise that you will not be filing an affidavit or participate in cross-examinations. Canada's revised proposed schedule would be as follows:

- Service and filing of Canada's Notice of Motion and Affidavits: 15 days from the date that the Court implements this schedule
- Service and filing of the Plaintiff's Affidavits: 15 days from the date that Canada serves its Notice of Motion and Affidavits
- Cross-examinations on affidavits: 10 days from the date that the Plaintiff serves his Affidavits
- Service and filing of Canada's Motion Record: 15 days from the expiration of the time for cross-examinations, or, if the Plaintiff does not intend to serve an Affidavit or conduct cross-examinations, within 15 days of Canada being advised of this
- Service and filing of the Plaintiff's Responding Record: 15 days from the date that Canada serves its Motion Record
- Service and filing of Canada's Reply Submissions: 7 days from the date that the Plaintiff serves his Responding Record

Please let me know if this revised timetable is acceptable to you. If not, pursuant to the Court's April 26, 2021, please provide me with your availabilities for a case management conference so I can advise the Court of our joint availabilities.

Canada

Sincerely,
